They're paid by the line or at least by the caption and all too frequently allow their own sense of obligation to their job to spiral out of control into the realms of pretension and extraordinary literary exaggeration. Book Bridget riley This is what appears to have happened In this book effectively the catalogue raisonnee of a Riley exhibition at a New York gallery A brilliantly succinct summation of Riley's stylistic approach related to the history of seeing in art is followed by a series of bizarre assertions about precisely what aesthetic and philosophical points her paintings supposedly make. Book Bridget riley's If she can manage something like that for the whole history of self-portraiture surely the work of one painter - even one as revolutionary and important as Riley - can similarly be expressed in accessible and non- parodiable terms ? Bridget Riley 080316: this encourages me to look at her work yet again to see the effect of Jackson Pollock Mondrian Cezanne to see her rigorous experimental visually challenging work. Bridget riley kids art she is not a one trick artist not simply a visual provocateur who discovers a stylistic trick and everything comes from that- she is at least as thoughtful as experimental as cezanne. Bridget riley kids art Bridget Riley This book documents Bridget Riley's current exhibition at New York's Dia Center for the Arts Reconnaissance which brings together seminal paintings from the early 1960s landmark works esteemed via word-of-mouth but not often seen,
