. And all history books were state issued. Good fairy tale. Table of contents listed at the end.Great middle age chapter reading book. The stories felt foreign and dated to both of us. The first book is Firebird: Adventure One. You and Katie created the real ending. The stories and legends are alive and always changing. And you can change their outcomes Aunt Karina says. Excited Katie finds another story to change. A young man named Emelya is imprisoned by an evil tsar. Alex and Katie rush to the rescue. And all history books were state issued. Now. they are back and onto their second adventure. English I really enjoyed this book. Additionally I love the lessons at the end. With a little magic and Lollipops they work their wonders.Five stars. It is not just for children but adults too
