move you to laughter to tears and a mixture of both and are proof that Gillan is at the peak of her career, Ancestors' songo river It does not contain the single strongest poem I have read by her but in my view it is her strongest collection: Ancestors' Song book Most of her poems are free-verse prose-poems but they contain lots of inner-music, Book Ancestors' songbird She writes with a lot of emotion in a conversational style that never gets old, EBook Ancestors' songs about I found the best poems in the second half of all of her books: Book Ancestors' songsterr Her first poem I Open A Box beautiful and poignantly sets the tone for the collection, Ancestors' Song booklet Thanks I AM BOOKS for including this in your wonderfully curated bookshop. She now lives in Hawthorne New Jersey. {site_link} Poetry. Italian American Studies. She is truly one of America's most beloved poets. I strongly recommend this book but I also suggest patience. In all her poetry books she starts slow. The best ones hit me like a sledgehammer. She is an underrated master. I'm so glad I found it. Ancestors' Song (VIA Folios).
