Book A Killing At The trackwrestling

But still a solid mystery. Full fleshed characters. Easy to read. Jeri Howard is one of my favorite private eye characters. I highly recommend the Jeri Howard books. A second death raises the stakes. A Killing At The Track (Jeri Howard #9) Love her books. Always a different twist that is revealed near the end. It is a sequel of life that I like. Her books always have a theme. Having grown up inFremont I am very familiar with Niles. Janet Dawson got it right. I loved the plot about Horse racing. Handicapping is a foreign language. She bets on horses because she likes the way they look. Dope a horse bribe a jockey - or murder a trainer. Jeri discovers dangerous odds on the track's backside. Her first Kindred Crimes won the St. The first in that series is Death Rides the Zephyr. Her first Kindred Crimes won the St. The first in that series is Death Rides the Zephyr. {site_link}
