English Some fun references to various fairy tales an energetic princess with a heart of gold and an obliviousness to magic ropes and a willingness to blur past some minor concerns (the winter in the mountains?) make this a fun and quick read. Epub Beyond the Hundred kingdoms reborn I enjoyed seeing the princess move beyond waiting for rescue and I like the touches that make her seem real -- her prayers at night her carelessness with wealth and her selective blindness towards magic. Beyond the hundred kingdomsff While the word Christian isn't used and there is no clear sense of what type of god is occurring the kneeling before bed with clasped hands image is used and it is one of the most important things she is taught. Beyond the hundred kingdomsff The story actually bored me and it was a turn-off that the Princess' praying is (not-so) subtly included multiple times (though it is a bit unfair of me because I realize that I have a knee-jerk reaction to prayer in books) and that the story was reminiscent of older moralistic tales for children. Beyond the Hundred Kingdoms pdfescape It involves Mabelrose's tricking the dragon into leaving for a time a magical rope her father's leaving home in search for her a sage a king in a cage a fair number of fairy tales talking animals and more:
