Anyway the detail of the jousting is enough to make me think the authors researched a bit there, (Why didn't I read this 10 years ago with Alicia? It's adorable!) Mason grew up in a large family in northern Minnesota. This book is kinda about girl boss power and sexism. Both Rapunzel and Val have pride issues. Or better. The big obstacle is her hair. I think the witch climbs down once. (Quite pointless.) So anyway the other girls help her. And it would be a theme I like. Which plot ends stupidly but whatever. And unnecessary. Two books left. Maybe that giant comes after her. Or she befriends Jack. I hope not. Jack was a real jerk
