

Crayola® El Color en la Naturaleza / Crayola® Color in Nature By Mari Schuh ,

Mari Schuh is the author of hundreds of nonfiction books for beginning readers covering topics from tomatoes to tornadoes: She lives in the Midwest with her husband and their sassy house rabbit. Through bright photos and Crayola (R) designs readers will learn about the incredible importance of color in nature: Now available in Spanish! Las flores utilizan el color para atraer aves y abejas, Las ranas y las serpientes usan colores como camuflaje o advertencia: Las fotografías brillantes y los diseños Crayola (R) demuestran a los lectores la increíble importancia del color en la naturaleza, Ahora en español! Crayola® El Color en la Naturaleza / Crayola® Color in Nature.

. Learn about her at marischuh.com. Flowers use color to attract birds and bees. Frogs and snakes use colors as camouflage or a warning